1. Preamble

- 1.1 The enhancement of corporate governance standards is vital towards the achievement of the objectives of transparency, accountability, integrity and effective performance for DXN Holdings Bhd. (“DXN” or “Company”) and its subsidiary(ies) (“Group” or “DXN Group”). Accordingly, this Board Charter (“Charter”) is established with the aim of enshrining the concepts of good governance as stated in the Malaysian MCCG on Corporate Governance issued on 28 April 2021 (“MCCG”) and the MMLR.
- 1.2 This Charter is to promote high standards of corporate governance and is designed to provide guidance and clarity for Directors and management with regard to the role of the Board and its committees, the requirements of Directors in carrying out their role and in discharging their duties towards the company as well as the Board’s operating practices.
- 1.3 This Charter serves as a reference point for Board activities and should not be construed as a blueprint for Board operations.
- 1.4 Just as each organisation has its own corporate culture, the dynamics of each Board is unique. The dynamics shift as the composition of the Board changes, and the Directors of the Company should always be open to new opportunities and ready to confront new challenges brought about by change.
- 1.5 This Charter does not overrule or pre-empt the statutory requirements of Directors as enshrined in the Act, the Income Tax Act 1967 and other relevant statutes, including the conduct of the Board as stipulated in the Constitution of the Company. To the extent of any conflict between the terms of this Charter and a Constitution, that Constitution prevails.
- 1.6 The following DXN Vision, DXN Concept and the DXN Philosophy guide the Group’s approach in strategic planning as well as sustain good governance and business responsibility in creating values for all stakeholders.

Corporate Vision

To promote health, wealth and happiness

DXN Concept

One Dragon

The entire process - cultivation, processing and marketing is solely done by the Company under strict quality control.

One World One Market

Each and every distributor enjoys worldwide bonus with single membership.

One Mind

The company and the distributors single-mindedly concentrate on doing DXN business.

DXN Philosophy

Low Price, High Quality; Low Profile, High Income

Our philosophy - to provide low price and high-quality products, to keep a low profile while generating high income is ideal for direct selling. This system is equitably accessible to anyone of any background. Our free enterprise system enables anyone to enjoy personal achievements that lead to greater financial independence.  - (p) together with senior management, ensuring that the Company and the Group adhere to high standards of ethics and corporate behaviour which reinforced elements of ethics, prudence and professionalism.
- 4.3 In overseeing the conduct of the Group's business, the Board shall ensure that an appropriate financial planning, operating and reporting framework as well as an embedded risk management framework is established. Elements under this combined framework include the business plan, budget, financial statements, divisional strategic/performance reviews reports and risk management reports.
- 4.4 There is a formal schedule of matters for its decision to ensure that the direction and control of the Group is firmly in its hands. This includes strategic issues and planning, material acquisition and disposal of assets, capital expenditure, authority levels, treasury policies, risk management policies, appointment of auditors and review of the financial statements, financing and borrowing activities, ensuring regulatory compliance and reviewing the adequacy and integrity of internal controls.

5. Board Structure

5.1 Board Balance and Composition

- (1) The Board recognises the significant representation by Directors who are capable and willing to make Business decisions and judgement in the best interest of the Group and free from influences which would give rise to conflict of interest with that duty and are also independent of Management. The Board deliberation and decision-making process should be of independence and objectivity. The Board shall comprise a majority of Independent Directors.
- (2) The Board should be of a size and composition with the benefit of a variety of perspective and skills that is conducive to effective decision making and effective discharge of its roles and responsibilities for the benefit of the Group and its Business.
- (3) It is also important for the Board to keep its size at a reasonable level (notwithstanding the fact that the Company's Constitution allows a minimum of two (2) and a maximum of eleven (11) Directors (disregarding alternate Directors but including EDs). Boards that are too small or too large may significantly limit the level of individual participation, involvement and effectiveness. The Board shall from time to time examine its size with a view to determine the impact of its number upon its effectiveness.
- (4) The Board recognises the need for the composition to reflect a range of skill mix and expertise. The appointment of a new member to the Board (as well as for those who retire and offer themselves for re-appointment or re-election) is only made after consultation with the Nomination Committee.

It is of importance to the Board that to ensure high levels of professional skills and appropriate personal qualities (relevant skills, character and integrity, experience and competence, expertise as well as time and commitment) are prerequisites for such candidates. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the qualifications for Board membership are described under item 6.7 in this Charter.

- (5) The Board recognises the need for an appropriate balance between EDs who possess extensive direct experience and expertise in the core Business activities of the Group, and non-executive Directors who have outstanding track records and reputation attained at the highest levels of business, professional practice and commerce generally, and who are able to bring to the Board a board range of general commercial expertise and experience.
- (6) The Board is also mindful of the recommendation for Board diversity and, under this circumstance, the Nomination Committee shall ensure that women candidates are sought during its recruitment exercise and consider gender diversity in its recommendation to the Board to ensure that the Board comprises at least 30% women Directors. Evaluation of suitability of any candidate is based on the criteria as stipulated to ensure that the candidate brings value and expertise to the Board.
- (7) The Board will also ensure that its Gender Diversity Policy for board and senior management is disclosed in the annual report.

5.2 Senior Independent Director

- (3) Board members are required to attend the Board meetings and attendance of each individual Director in the meetings held in a financial year is required to be disclosed in the annual report.

Other senior officers / Management who can provide additional insight into matters under discussion or appear to persons with potential who should be given exposure to the Board may be invited to attend for particular items within their responsibility. The Board may also invite external parties such as the auditors, solicitors and consultants as and when the need arises.

- (4) Additional formal business is dealt with as required, whether by physical, videoconferencing or telephonic meetings, as well as other communications equipment by other electronic meetings defined in the Constitution of the Company. All notices, resolutions, attendance, transactions, quorum and votes obtained through electronic means shall be deemed valid and effective unless it contravenes the requirements of relevant statutes and regulations.
- (5) All meetings of the Board will be conducted in accordance with the Constitutions of the Company and applicable laws.
- (6) The Chairman of the Board shall preside over meetings of the Board. In his absence, a Director from amongst Board members present shall be appointed to preside at that relevant Board meeting.
- (7) The quorum for Board meetings is two (2) members present in person.
- (8) All Board decisions shall be made through consensus. In the event consensus could not be reached, it shall be decided by a majority of votes and in the event of equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote in accordance with the Company's Constitution. The chairman will not have a second casting vote where only 2 directors form the quorum or at which only 2 directors are competent to vote on the question at issue.
- (9) Any issues which arise between meetings can be resolved through circular resolutions subsequent to the Board (as a whole) being apprised of the issues [either via audio-visual calls, emails or other means of communication] and obtaining their view before arriving at a decision. Such discussion, including any concerns raised and the rationale for the decision shall be tabled at the following Board meeting for formal record keeping.]

A resolution in writing signed by a majority of Directors entitled to vote on the resolution in lieu of convening a formal meeting shall be as valid and effectual as it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more members and forwarded or otherwise delivered to and shall be recorded by the Company Secretary.

6.3 Agenda

- (1) Except in cases of emergency, the notice of a Board' meeting should be given in writing at least five (5) business days prior to all Board meetings. Notices may be sent through any means of communication as prescribed in the Company's Constitution.
- (2) A well-prepared board agenda will enhance the Board's productivity and strengthen its strategic and supervisory role. The Chairman, in conjunction with the Executive Director and the Company Secretary, shall undertake the primary responsibility for preparing the Board's agenda.
- (3) The agenda shall include, amongst others, matters specifically reserved for the Board's decision. Due consideration should be given to items for inclusion, sequence of these items, approximate time to be allocated for each item as well as the necessary board papers needed to be provided to the Board including items to be sent in advance. In the case of sensitive and confidential information, these board papers may be circulated just prior to the Board meeting. The Board shall record its deliberation, in terms of the issues discussed, and the conclusions thereof in discharging its duties and responsibilities.
- (4) At least one regularly scheduled Board meeting per year shall be substantially focussed on review, discussion and approval of corporate strategies. All significant corporate strategies shall be reviewed and approved by the Board.

6.4 Meeting Papers

- (1) As a matter of best practice and to allow ample time for Directors to consider the relevant information, Board papers and agenda items are to be circulated at least five (5) business days or within such reasonable period of time prior to the meeting. It is recommended that where there is a need to table a report, a brief listing of findings and/or recommendations is prepared.

- (2) The minutes of Board meetings reflecting the deliberations and decisions of the Board including any dissenting views and if any director had abstained from voting or deliberating on a particular matter shall be prepared in a timely manner in any event within one (1) month following a Board meeting and shall be circulated in draft form. The draft minutes shall be re-circulated together with the Board papers at the following Board meeting in readiness for approval. The practice is for minutes to record processes and decisions rather than a historical narrative of the discussion. If one or more Directors request their opinion to be noted, the Company Secretary shall comply with the request.

6.5 Access to Information and Senior Management

- (1) Unless otherwise provided by or subject to any applicable laws or MMLR, all Directors have the full and unrestricted right of access to all information relevant to the furtherance of their duties and responsibilities as Directors of the Company.
- (2) Non-executive Board members are expected to notify, as a matter of protocol, via email or call, any of the Executive Directors or the Chief Financial Officer before contacting any members of the senior management on any substantive matters and regarding the normal activities of Board Committees.
- (3) A record of submissions, papers and materials presented to the Board, is maintained and held by the Company Secretary together with minutes of meetings, and is accessible to Directors.
- (4) All Directors should have access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary.
- (5) All Directors acknowledge that confidential information received in the course of exercise of Board duties remains the property of the Group, whether it relates to the Group or another entity. It will not be disclosed unless either the Chairman of the Board has so authorized in writing, or disclosure is required by law.

6.6 Independent Professional Advice

- (1) The full Board or a Director in their individual capacity, shall be able to obtain independent professional advice where necessary and reasonable for the performance of their duties at the Company's expense.

- (2) If a Director considers such advice necessary for the discharge of his or her duties and responsibilities as Director and for the benefit of the Company, such Director shall obtain the Board's prior approval, and in seeking such advice, shall be required to comply with the following procedures:
 - (a) The request shall be made in writing to the Board;
 - (b) The Director concerned shall prepare a detailed paper to be submitted to the Board, highlighting inter alia the purpose behind the request and the estimated costs for the advice; and
 - (c) The Board shall deliberate on the said paper and at its absolute discretion determine if the Director concerned shall be permitted to seek independent professional advice. Should a request be denied, the Director concerned is entitled to have his or her views duly recorded.
- (3) Subject to prior approval of the Board, the cost of the advice will be reimbursed by the Company but the Director will ensure, so far as is practicable, that the cost is reasonable.

6.7 Appointment of Director

- (1) The appointment of a new Director is a matter for consideration and decision by the full Board upon appropriate recommendation from the Nomination Committee.
- (2) Upon appointment, the said Director shall provide to Bursa Securities an undertaking prescribed by Bursa Securities immediately and in any event not later than fourteen (14) days.
- (3) The qualifications for Board membership are:
 - (a) in compliance with, from time to time, the qualifications of directors as defined under Para 15.05 of the MMLR;
 - (b) the ability to make informed business decisions and recommendations;
 - (c) an entrepreneurial talent for contributing to the creation of Shareholders value;

- (d) education and experience that provides knowledge of business, sustainability, financial, governmental or legal matters that are relevant to the Company and Business or to its status as a publicly owned company;
 - (e) the ability to appreciate the wider picture and to ask probing operational related questions,
 - (f) have high ethical standards and sound practical sense;
 - (g) sufficient available time to be able to fulfil his or her responsibilities as a member of the Board and any of the Committees to which he or she may be appointed; and
 - (h) total commitment to furthering the interests of shareholders and the achievement of the Company's goals.
- (4) The Board shall utilise independent sources (including but not limited to directors' registry maintained by various bodies, open advertisements or utilise the service of independent search firms) to identify suitably qualified candidates to fill board vacancies.

6.8 Induction Process

- (1) The objective of the induction process is to provide Directors with a rapid and clear insight into the Group as well as keeping them abreast with development in the marketplace pertaining to the oversight function of Directors. This will enable the Directors to discharge their duties and responsibilities effectively.
- (2) The Chairman, working with the CEO, Company Secretary, Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee, will provide new Directors with appropriate background materials and information about the Group in advance of their first Board meeting.
- (3) Induction of Directors may include any of the following:
 - (a) time with other Directors, in particular the Chairman, the Company Secretary and, if the Independent Director is a functional specialist, his or her counterpart;
 - (b) furnishing of a copy of the previous board minutes for at least the past six (6) months as well as strategic plan and budget (if not already included in the previous board minutes aforesaid);

- (c) visits to key sites within Malaysia; and
- (d) a formal 1 to 2 days induction programme, including the elements above.

6.9 Conflict of Interest

- (1) The Company's Constitution stipulates that a Director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Company shall declare his interest in accordance with the provisions of the Act. In connection with the disclosure, every Director shall state the fact and the nature, character and extent of any office or possession of any property whereby whether directly or indirectly duties or interests might be created in conflict with his duty or interest as a Director of the Company.
- (2) The Director concerned shall not participate in deliberations and shall abstain himself from casting his votes in any matter arising thereof unless otherwise as provided for in the Constitution of the Company.
- (3) Should there be an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest between the Company or a related corporation and a Director, or an associate of a Director such as a spouse or other family members, or a related company, the Director involved shall make full disclosure and act honestly in the best interest of the Company.
- (4) An actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest shall not necessarily disqualify an individual Director from the Board provided that full disclosure of the interest has been made in good faith and with due honesty.
- (5) In the particular case where the non-interested members of the Board may decide that a Director or a related party may properly supply goods or services on commercially acceptable terms to the Group, details will be reviewed by the Audit Committee. Where appropriate, the Company shall seek a general mandate from the shareholders at the general meetings for the Group to undertake the said transactions. Further disclosures will be provided in the Notes to the Audited Financial Statements.
- (6) The Company Secretary shall aid the annual independence and conflict of interest self-declaration by the Directors.

6.10 Assessment of the Board and Directors

- (1) The Nomination Committee is tasked by the Board to review, annually in an objective and formal manner, the performance and effectiveness of the Board and Board Committees, including individual Directors and senior management, annually, with the assessment report, together with a report on the Board balance covering the required mix of skills, experience and other qualities of Board members, tabled for discussion at the full Board.
- (2) The said review of the Directors and senior management shall include a review of their efforts in addressing the Group's material sustainability risks and opportunities and delivering progress against achievement of sustainability targets.
- (3) The Board shall engage independent experts (at least once every three (3) years) to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

6.11 Directors' External Commitments

- (1) The Company shall ensure that its Board members have the character, integrity, experience, competence and time to effectively discharge their roles.
- (2) The Board members shall ensure that they dedicate sufficient time and commitment to carry out their roles and responsibilities as well as sufficient to meet the demands and expectations of the role. Each Director shall provide such a commitment at the point of appointment. Each Director is also required to commit to attend at least 50% of the Board meetings held during each financial year.
- (3) A Director of the Company shall hold not more than five (5) directorships in public listed companies. Prior to accepting any new appointment, Directors shall notify the Chairman in writing and this shall include an indication of time that will be spent on the new appointment.

6.12 Directors' Continuing Education

- (1) The Board believes that each Director should receive continuing education on an annual basis regarding Directors' duties and responsibilities, corporate governance, legal, regulatory and accounting developments, sustainability, investor relations matters and other topics relevant to the oversight of the business of the Group. Such continuing education shall at a minimum satisfy the requirements of any applicable laws or regulations.

In respect of sustainability, the Directors should keep updated on issues (including climate related risks and opportunities) relevant to the Group and its Business.

- (2) The Board, assisted by the Nomination Committee, shall on continuous basis assess, evaluate and determine the training needs of the Directors. The Nomination Committee, in association with the senior management and Company Secretary, shall recommend the annual training calendar for Directors. All Directors are encouraged to attend the training programmes recommended by the Nomination Committee.
- (3) The training(s) attended by the Directors will be disclosed in the annual report. In special circumstances, valid justifications for non-attendance at any training by Directors during the financial year shall also be disclosed.
- (4) The costs of the induction, mandatory accreditation programme and/ or continuing education program shall be borne by the Company.

7. Representation of the Company

- 7.1 The Board looks to the Chairman, to speak on behalf of the Group and to manage the communication of information to investors, other stakeholders and the public in an orderly and effective manner while adhering, at all times, to relevant laws and regulatory requirements with reference to the Company's Corporate Disclosure & Communication Policy.
- 7.2 Non-Executive Directors, to as far an extent as possible, should avoid commenting on the Company to external audiences. This is to avoid confusion and to ensure that the Board speaks in one voice.
- 7.3 The Group shall use information technology in its communication with Shareholders and other stakeholders. The usage shall include a dedicated section for Corporate Governance under the Investor Relations heading on the Group's corporate website. This dedicated section shall provide updated information such as quarterly financial statements, Board Charter and Annual Report, amongst others.

- 7.4 The Board shall have the relevant corporate disclosure policy and procedures to ensure comprehensiveness, accuracy and timeliness. These policies and procedures shall ensure compliance with the relevant disclosure requirements in the MMLR.

8. Remuneration of the Directors & Key Senior Management

- 8.1 The Group aims to set remuneration at levels which are sufficient to attract and retain the Directors and senior management needed to run the Company successfully, taking into consideration all relevant factors including the demands, complexities and performance of the Company as well as skills and experience required, but without paying more than is necessary to achieve this goal.
- 8.2 The Executive Directors and the senior management shall receive remuneration that is recommended by the Remuneration Committee after giving due consideration to the compensation levels for comparable positions among other similar Malaysian public listed companies.
- 8.3 The Non-Executive Directors will be entitled to fees and benefits payable for their role as Directors of the Company subject to shareholders' approval at general meetings. The benefits payable would include allowance for attendance at meetings and for the responsibilities undertaken on Committees.
- 8.4 The remuneration for all Directors (and Key Senior Management) and shall be approved by the Board (upon recommendation from the Remuneration Committee) with the Directors concerned abstaining from participating in the discussion of his individual remuneration. - (j) Refrain from activities or behaviour that could give rise to the perception or suspicion of any corrupt or illegal acts or the attempt thereof.

10. Whistle Blowing Policy

- 10.1 A Whistle Blowing Policy is in place to enhance corporate governance practices across the Group and which provides Directors, officers, employees and stakeholders of the Group with an avenue to report suspected improprieties such as illegal or unlawful conduct, contravention of the Group's policies and procedures, acts endangering the health or safety of any individual, public or employee, and any act of concealment of improprieties.

- 10.2 The aim of this policy is to encourage the reporting of such matters in good faith, with the confidence that the person filing the report, to the extent possible, be protected from reprisal, victimisation, harassment or subsequent discrimination.

11. The Company's Constitution and Management' Limits

- 11.1 The Board operates pursuant to the powers and is subject to rules in the Constitution of the Company as adopted by shareholders in general meeting.
- 11.2 The Management is expected to act within all specific authorities delegated to it by the Board as outlined under Authority Matrix. Nevertheless, the Board is still charged with the responsibility for the exercise of such power by the delegate as if such power had been exercised by the Directors themselves.

This responsibility can be negated only when:

- (a) the Board believed on reasonable grounds that the delegate would exercise the delegated powers in conformity with the Act and the Constitution of the Company; and
- (b) the Board believed on reasonable grounds, in good faith and after making a proper inquiry that the delegate (where necessary) was reliable and competent in relation to the powers delegated.
- 11.3 The Management is expected not to cause or permit any practice, activity or decision that is contrary to commonly accepted good business practice or professional ethics.

12. Deeming Provision

- 12.1 The provisions under this Board Charter have been drafted in a manner to incorporate the provisions under the MMLR, the MCGG and other statutes, regulations and guidelines applicable to the Board Charter (if any). In the event the applicable provisions of the MMLR, the MCGG and/or relevant governing statutes, regulations and guidelines relating to the Board Charter are from time to time amended, modified or varied, such amendments, modifications and variations shall be deemed inserted herein whereupon these Board Charter shall be read and construed subject to and in accordance with the amended, modified or varied MMLR, MCGG, statutes, regulations and guidelines.

13. Revision to the Board Charter

- 13.1 The Board Charter shall be reviewed by the Board annually and as when necessary to ensure its relevance in aiding the Board to discharge its duties and responsibilities vis a vis the changes in corporate laws and regulations that may arise from time to time.
- 13.2 Upon the Board's approval, the said revision or amendment shall form part of this Board Charter and this Board Charter shall be considered duly revised or amended.
- 13.3 The Board Charter must be made available on the Company's website.
